
Fall Schedule

Posted by Ailslieger - 2010/07/10 23:13

Our schedule for the fall season is done. We have only one long road trip, which is the season kickoff against the Saint Louis Rowdies. After that, we have a string of home games, then a couple of short road trips, another home game, and then we end the season with a friendly match at K-State. Because Northland and Salina are both back in the competition, and the KC Blues added a DIII side, the Heart had to do away with the home and away merit set up. Now, we just play each team once, home or away, and then the top 4 teams hold a playoff tournament in the spring to see who goes on to the Western playoffs. So, we have 5 of our 6 merit table matches scheduled this fall (3 at home, 2 away). The only team we didn't schedule is Arkansas (so we'll have to play them in the spring).

Here's the schedule (mark your calendars now!):

August 28 - Wichita Harlot 10's Tournament (not a team event)

September 4 - Labor Day - NO GAME

September 11 - At St. Louis

September 18 - Wichita at home (3:30 pm kickoff)

September 25 - NO GAME

October 2 - Emporia at home

October 9 - Northland at home

October 16 - At Salina

October 23 - At KC Blues

October 30 - KC Rogues at home

November 6 - At K-State

Here's a change: because Emporia backed out on us, we've scheduled KCRF for that same weekend (Oct. 2nd) at our field. So nothing changes except the opponent.
